

Celestial Fire - A Naval Aviator's Spiritual Odyssey

A former Naval Aviator and Vietnam Vet once met the infamous MEN-in-BLACK. Now, as a Quantum Heart-Shift Facilitator, he's sharing his proclaimed...secret to life mastery!

"A REAL LIFE Fox Mulder for us X-Files Fans," says Writer's Digest reviewer

In 1957, a Studio City California hillside home belonging to the Stevens family was the site of a reported Flying Saucer crash. This was just the beginning of a spectacular adventure for our intrepid author...now Director of Self-Empowerment Education for the Dodona Human Potential Research Institute, and a Community Coordinator for the Institute of Noetic Science (NorCo IONS).

December 4, 2005 - Agape Spiritual Center

In 1967, Navy Lieutenant Larry James Stevens and his flight crew encountered a spectacular energy force that entered their four-engine transport aircraft with apparent purpose and intent. After terrifying the cockpit occupants with its spectacular fireworks display, the bizarre-acting spheroid went rearward to directly incinerate and deactivate a 4500 lb. chemical canister weapon. None of the ten crewmembers were physically harmed, but when the pilots reported the incident, no one believed their fire-ball story... except for a cloned group of humorless, interrogating investigators allegedly representing some ultra-secret watchdog agency. Suddenly, MEN-in-BLACK became more than a bad fashion statement.

Larry James Stevens – Mark Victor Hansen

Celestial Fire, by Larry James Stevens, is the true story of a U.S. Naval aviator who served in Vietnam, and his Samadhi heart-connection achieved after a thirty-year quest to uncover the secret meaning behind paranormal phenomena and the truth of cosmic (guided) intervention. It's a love story of the highest order, as our lonely, emotionally dysfunctional warrior — surviving one extraordinary life-extending event after another — finally learns to let go...let LOVE...and thereby exchange his bear guns for a bear hug. The life-mastery message revealed to “options broker” Larry, from his relentless pursuit of the higher meaning and purpose to our Earth existence, is user-friendly for believers and skeptics.

Best-selling thriller writer Dean Koontz says “Celestial Fire is FASCINATING!”
